

Our Butterfly Book

antennae

forewing wingtip

eye

thorax

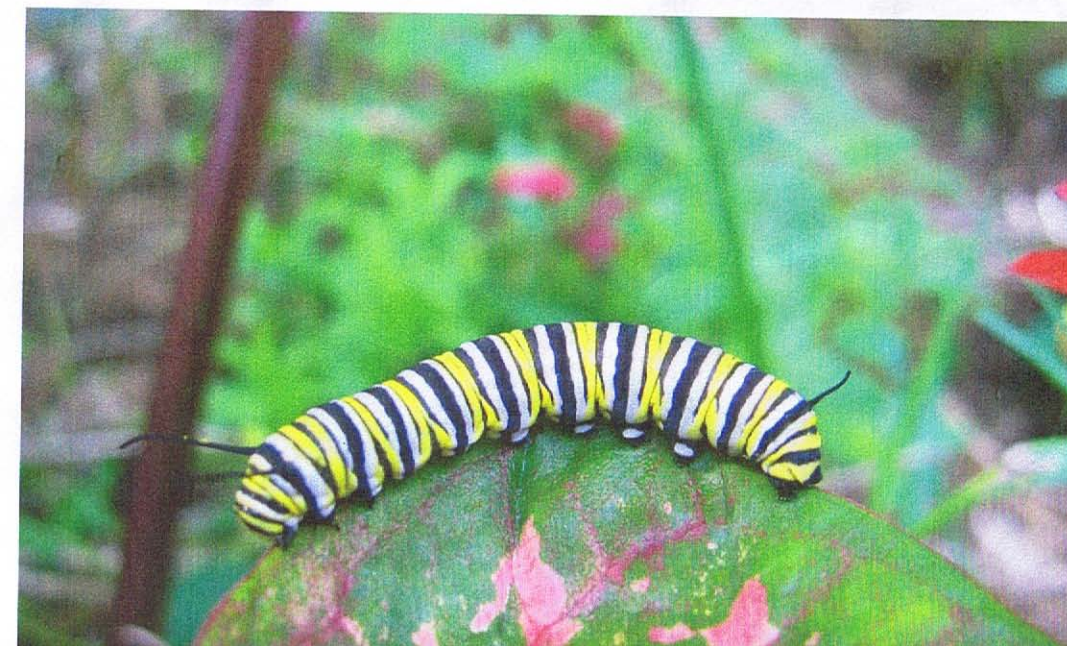

proboscis

abdomen

hindwing

The mother butterfly
lays eggs on a leaf.

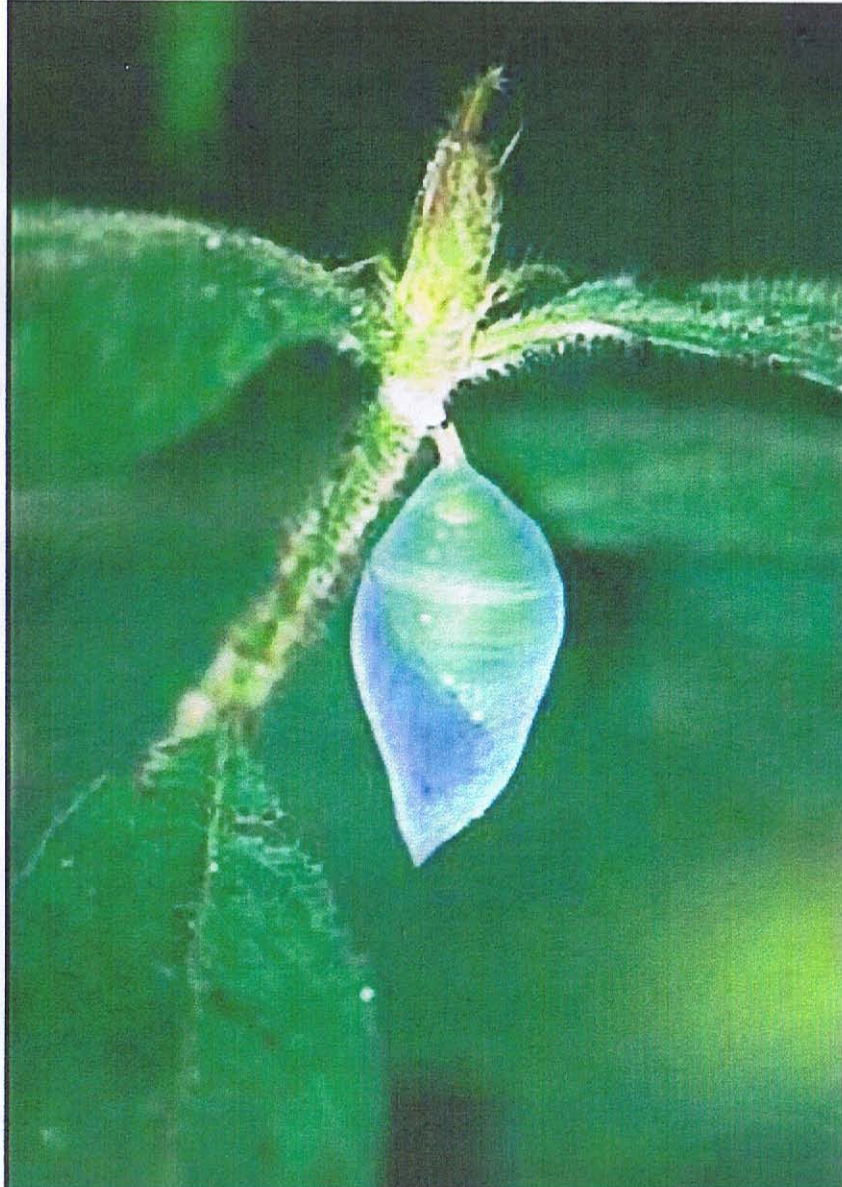

A caterpillar hatches
out of the eggs.

The caterpillar eats and eats until it gets real

9
=
9
=

It then builds a house around itself, called a "chrysalis".
The caterpillar then goes to sleep.

The caterpillar came out of its house a "beautiful butterfly"

