

The Little Fir Tree

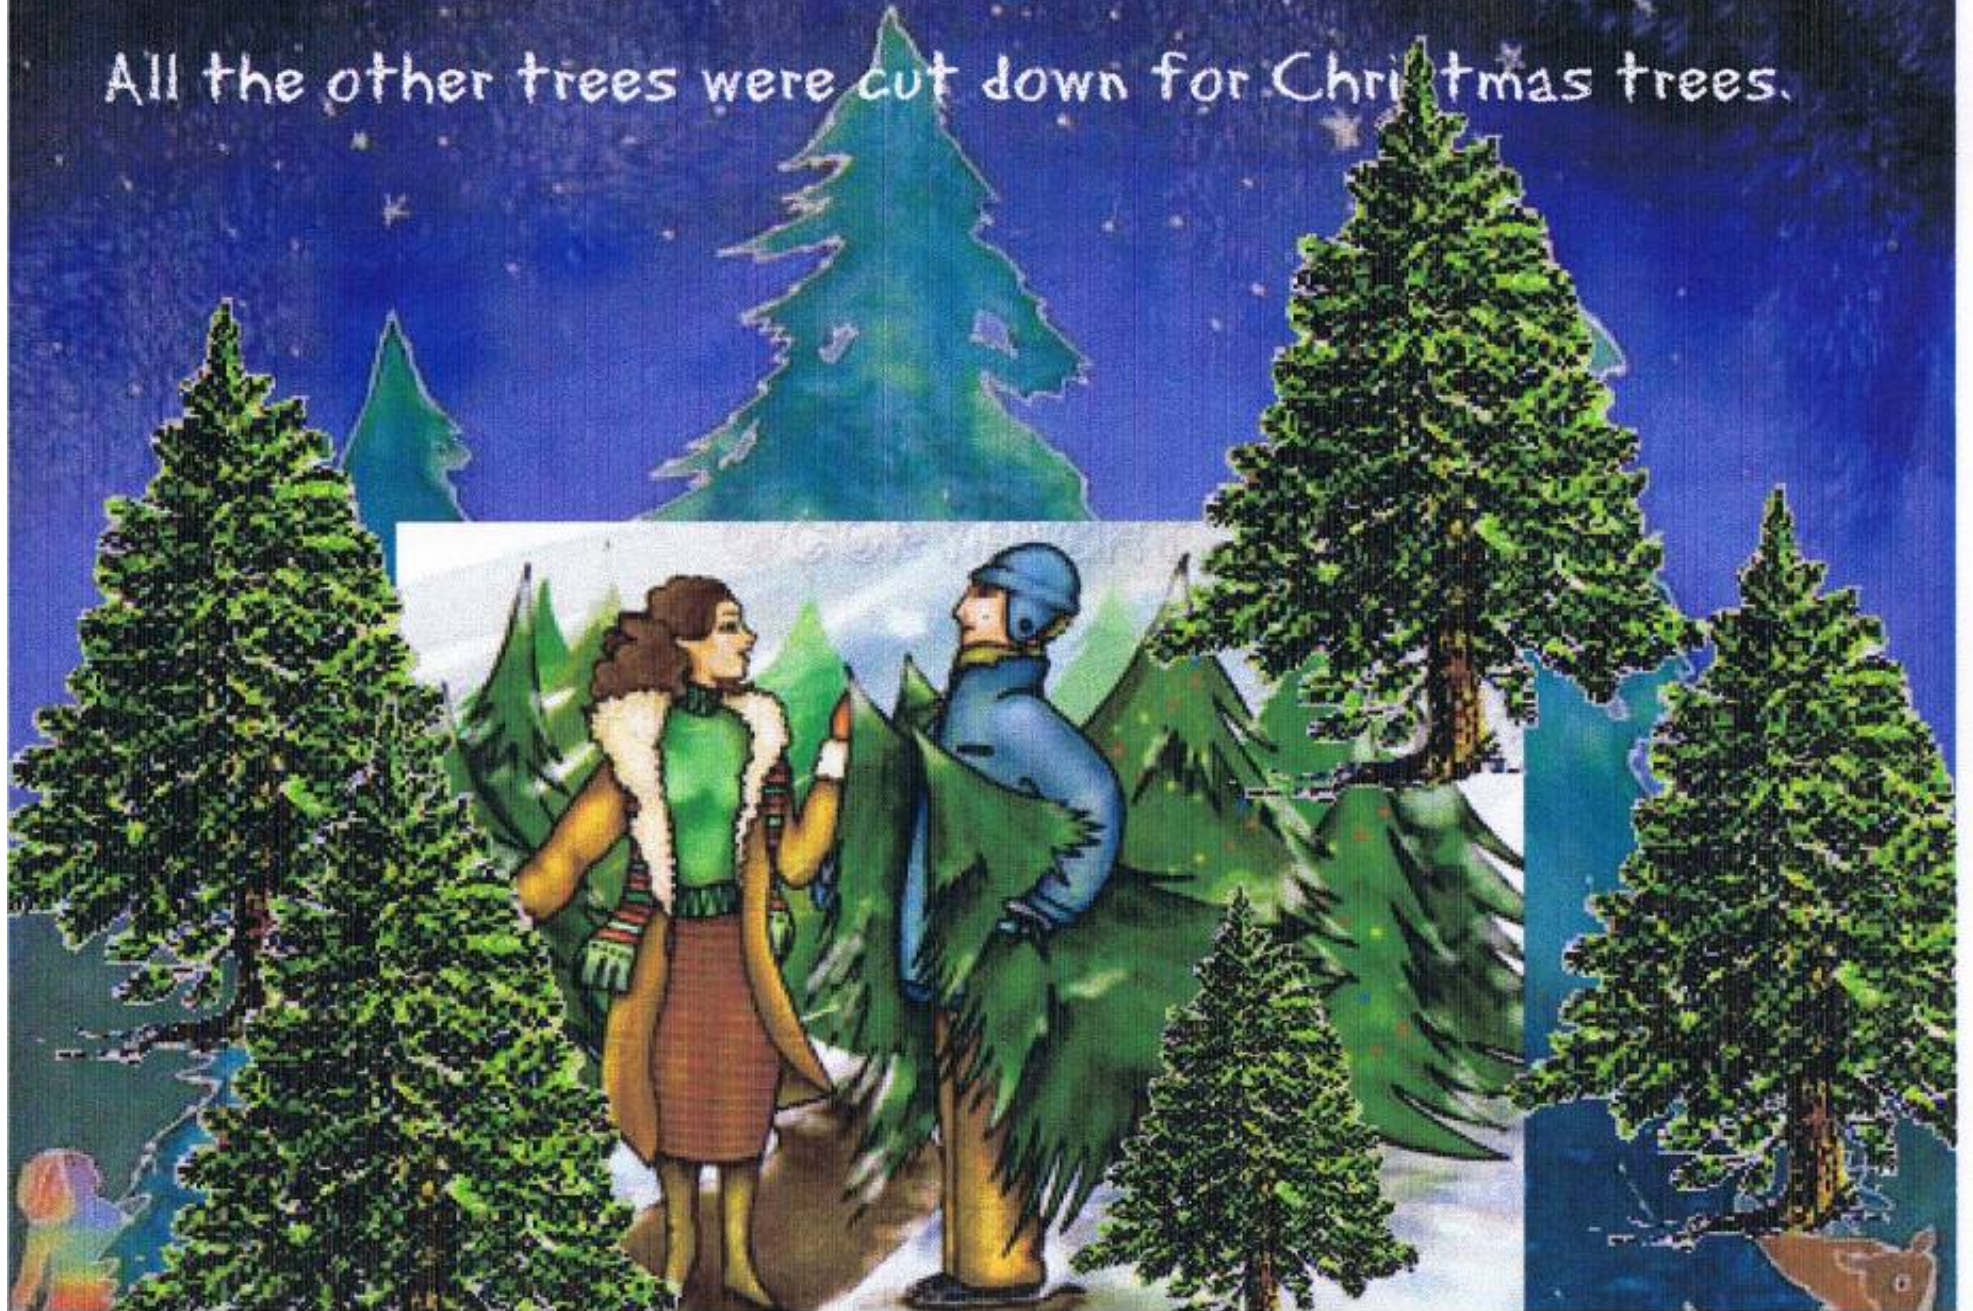

Teresa Williams, M.Ed.
12/2006

One little tree wanted to be a Christmas tree.

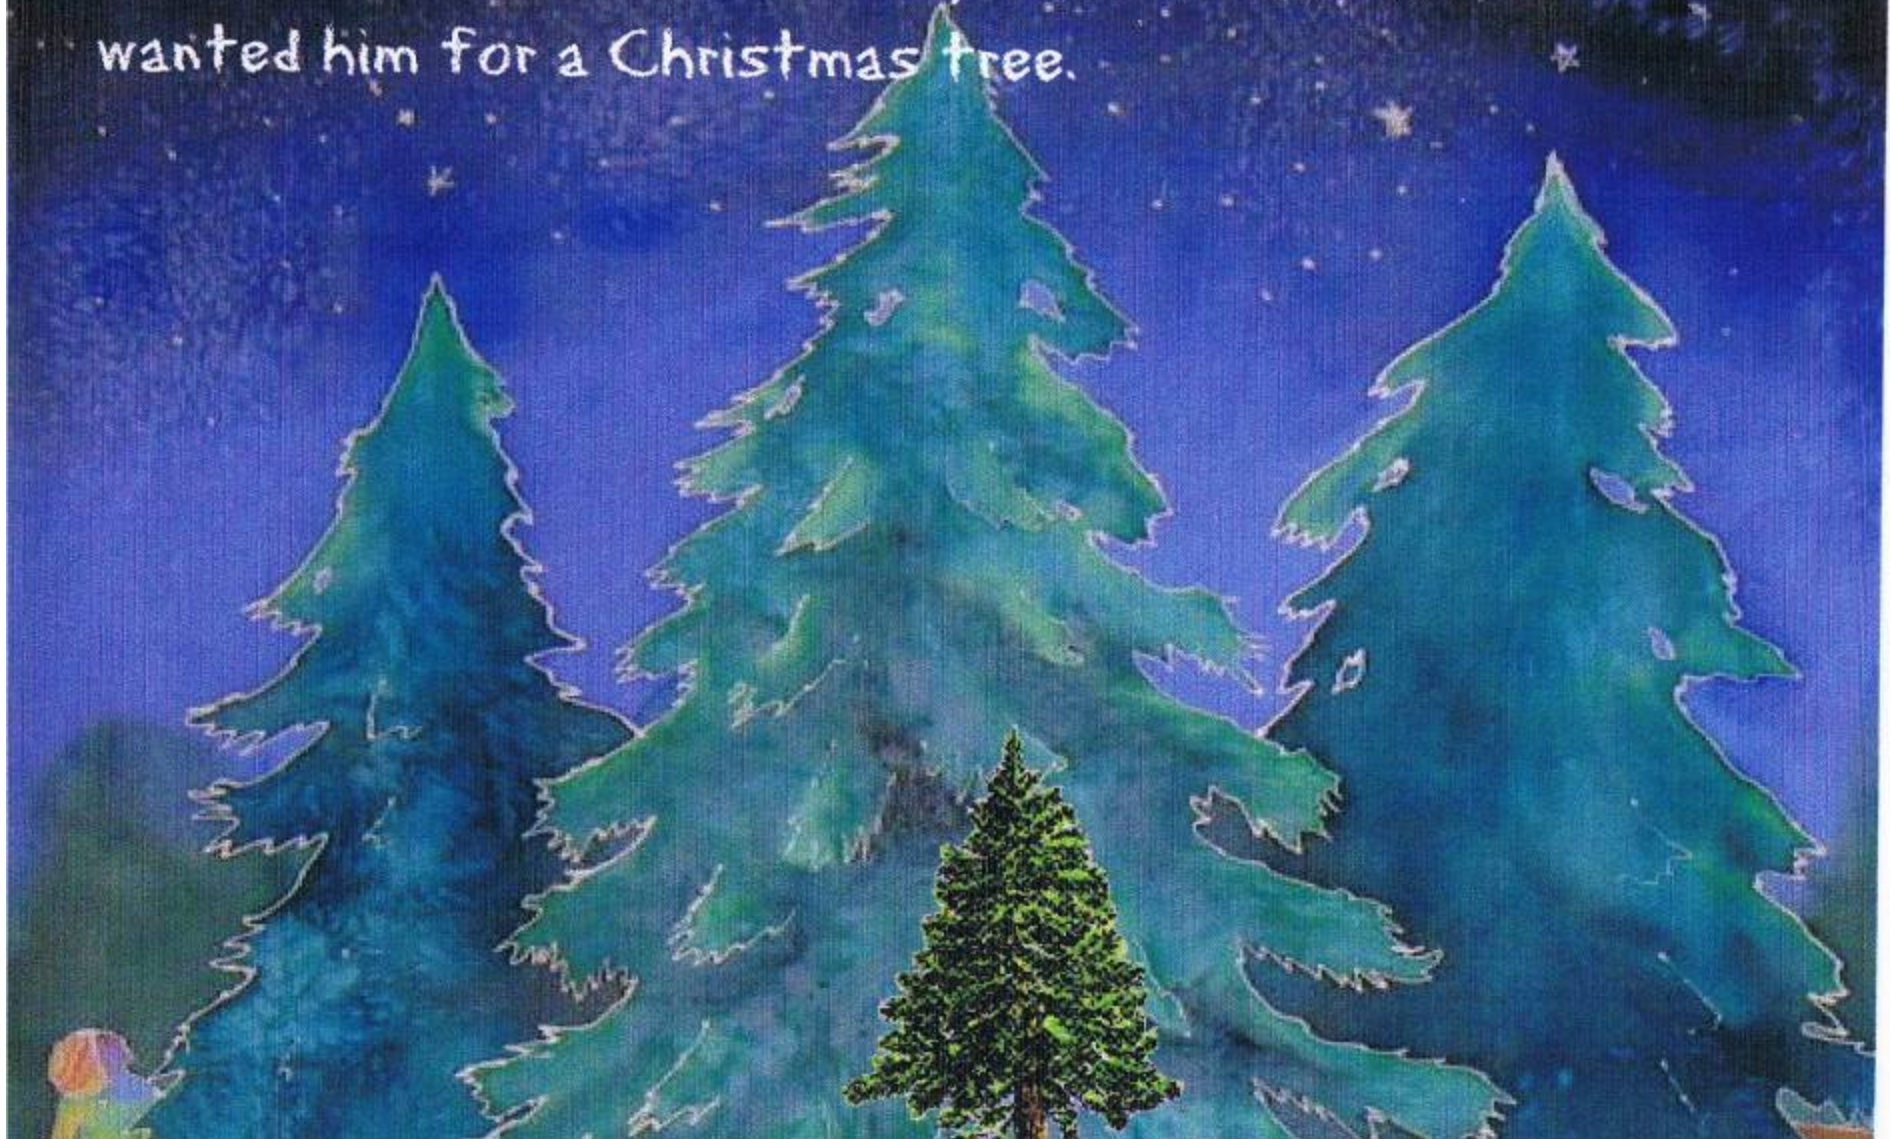

Teresa Williams, M.Ed.
12/2006

All the other trees were cut down for Christmas trees.

Teresa Williams, M.Ed.
12/2006

Now the little tree was lonely because no one wanted him for a Christmas tree.

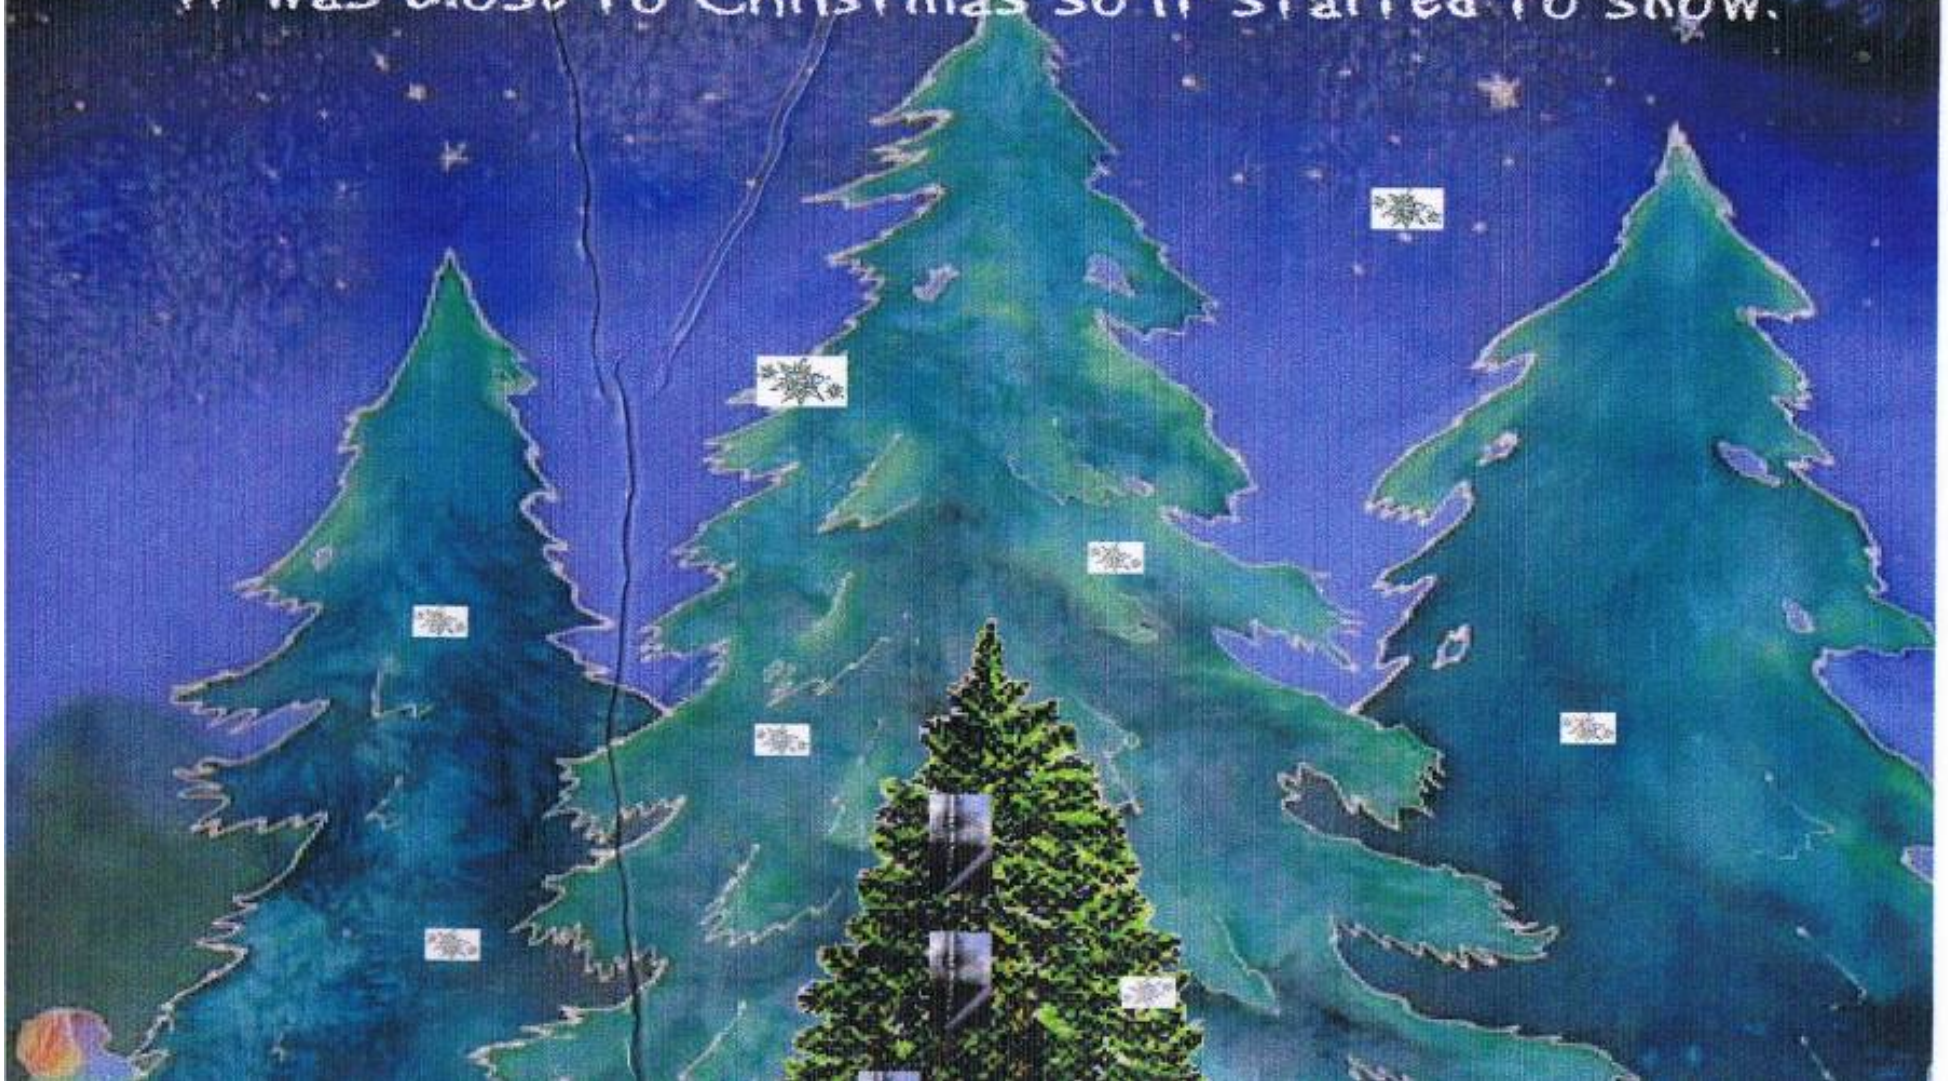

He cried big tears which formed icicles because it was so cold.

Teresa Williams, M.Ed.
12/2006

It was close to Christmas so it started to snow.

Then along came a squirrel that was very hungry and looking for food. He saw 2 pinecones that lay beneath the littlest tree.

It was a wonderful feast for the little squirrel. He saw a star that arose just above the little tree and said, "This is the prettiest Christmas tree ever! Both the squirrel and the little tree had a very merry Christmas!"

